

Literacy

- We will be reading and writing the following text types during topic work:
- Information books-non fiction
- Stories with familiar settings
- Daily phonics work will be based on Letters and sounds phases 2, 3, 4 & 5 (this depends on the phonics group that each child is in)

Science

- Investigate the best materials for various toys-old and new toys
- To ask simple questions and perform simple tests to answer them.

ICT

- To find and use pictures on the web on life now and then
- Group images on the basis of a binary question
- Organise images in a document
- Resize images
- draw old and new toys using a paint

Spring
Second Half
Term 2018

History

- To use common words relating to passing of time linked to toys
- To identify similarities and differences between ways of life within living memory
- To order chronologically images to show changes over time

Art and DT

- To draw portraits in the style of a past era
- To create a collage
- To learn about the artist Jackson Pollock
- To sketch toys from the past
- To design and make a toy car
- To create a toy from the past

Time Detectives

Year 1

Dance

- To explore movement ideas to create a dance of toys set in a toy shop

Numeracy

Count forward and back to and across 100; be able to read and write numbers to 100 in numerals; count in multiples of 2, 5 and 10; identify 1 more and 1 less; interpret addition and subtraction number sentences; know addition and subtraction number facts within 20; solve 1 step word problems; recognise and find half and a quarter of objects, shapes and numbers; measure the length, mass and capacity of objects; measure time and tell the time to the hour and half past; recognise the value of different coins and notes; sequence events in chronological order; recognise language related to days, weeks, months and years; recognise and name common 2D and 3D shapes; describe the position,

Non topic based subjects

Music

- To explore pulse and rhythm

PE

Games- Toys
machine dance
Athletics skills
Outdoor ball games

RE

- To learn the importance of holy days and symbols
- To understand the significance of Easter for Christians

PSHE & SEAL

Relationships – To recognise their own and others' feelings